

Please deny the petition that would restrict our choice of ISP. I believe our country is founded (among other significant principles, of course), on the desire to have a choice. I also believe that removing the choice of ISP would eventually result in higher ISP charges due to lack of competition. Thank you for your attention.